Br. Deane

I am informed that memoirs of James Jackson have been examined, & that the decision is that it is not a proper book to be sold in your depository. I regret this exceedingly, & am very anxious to be possessed of the reasons for such a decision. Will you inform me, if convenient by the next mail, at Wrentham, 1st Who examined the book; & 2d What were the reasons for the above mentioned decision? So doing you will much oblige Yours truly Asa D. Phelps
